

The Department of Political Science celebrated Human Rights Day on 10th Dec 2024 in Krishnagar women's college. To mark this significant day (Universal Declaration Human Rights UDHR) our department has organised a seminar to raise awareness about human rights and promote a culture of respect, dignity and equality.

The seminar began with the welcome address by ser Sut Baijayanti Ghosh, HOD. The keynote speakers delivered thought-provoking lectures on various aspects of human rights including the history and significance of the UDAR, challenges in promoting human rights and strategies for effective advocacy. Dr. Prasenjit Saha, Assistant Professor of Karimpur Pannavedi college delivered his valuable speech. His meaningful speech on Human Rights and promote a culture of respect, dignity and equality.